SUGGESTED ITINERARY:

Day 1 Welcome To Cape Town

Upon arrival you'll be met and privately transferred to your accommodation in Camps Bay (transfers included if we all arrive at the same time – see suggested flights below). You'll have the remainder of the day free to relax or explore on your own.

Overnight Cape Town

Day 2 Private Full day photography tour

Enjoy a scintillating coastal drive to visit the home of the African Penguin at Boulders Beach. Here penguins, in their thousands, make this a trip highlight and a memorable photo stop. Stop at the brightly coloured Victorian bathing boxes of St. James Beach, False Bay. The adventurous can take a swim in the tidal pool. We'll stop en route for coffee and a delicious pastry. Other highlights include Cape Point nature reserve and Chapman's peak drive.

Overnight Cape Town (B)

Day 3 Private full-day photography tour

Today we'll focus on birds. Colorful endemics such as the Double breasted sunbird and Cape Sugarbird can be seen flitting between the beautiful Protea's in our botanical gardens and nature reserves. The Cape's vast coastline is supported by the nutrient rich Benguela current that supports a rich sea life including vast flocks of coastal and ocean going birds. Let's see what we can capture.

Overnight Cape Town (B)

Day 4 Private full-day photography tour

Today our private tour will take us to the Cape's beautiful winelands. The Cape boasts hundreds of excellent wine farms and mountain side vineyards with excellent views. Stop for coffee at the wonderful Stables restaurant before exploring the historic Vergelegen Estate. We'll then drive to Stellenbosch and beyond, exploring the Stellenbosch and Paarl winelands, stopping at the beautifully manicured gardens of Babylonstoring. This relaxing and immersive countryside day trip will leave you spellbound and keep your camera clicking at all of the epic vistas.

Day 5 Private full-day photography tour

August and September are peak months for Whale watching in the Cape. Today we'll take an incredibly scenic drive to Hermanus, the whale watching capital of South Africa. Here we'll enjoy a whale watching cruise. Heading back to Camps Bay we may stop at Rooisand estuary to photograph a herd of wild horses. For those of you who haven't had enough of penguins, we could make another stop at the Stony Point penguin colony.

Overnight Cape Town (B)

Day 6 Private full-day photography tour

Every year in September the west coast explodes into color – it's the spring wildflower season. We'll spend the day at Posberg at the West Coast National Park, photographing fields of wildflowers, along with birds and african antelope species.
